

Real Estate Investment and Exchange
Authorization Form

The real estate licensee (the "Licensee") named herein hereby certifies, represents and warrants that licensee has an Exclusive Listing (in writing) or is a Partner or Owner of any property submitted to REIE for inclusion in the REIE website, newsletter and for presentation in a moderated presentation at the REIE marketing meeting. Licensee further certifies, represents and warrants that his/her client(s) have authorized them to disclose and share any and all information as the licensee believes and deems it necessary and appropriate in order to best serve the needs of their respective client(s). The aforesaid information may include, but is not limited to, personal and financial data regarding the client(s), their motivations and objectives, and full disclosure of any and all available information regarding the client and the property(s). These representations shall apply to all written or verbal presentations made by the licensee named herein. The licensee further agrees to defend and hold REIE harmless against any legal action taken against REIE, its Board or its members for any matter having to do with licensee's representations regarding its clients and properties including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees and costs.

The licensee named herein further certifies, warrants and represents that they hold a valid real estate license in the state named herein which license expires on the date designated below.

By attending a REIE marketing meeting, the licensee hereby acknowledges and agrees that REIE may require, at its option, additional evidence in writing of the validity of the real estate license. Without such certification, attendance at an REIE marketing meeting may be denied at the sole discretion and option of Real Estate Investment and Exchange.
